REPLY TO NOTIFICATION OF INSUFFICIENT FEES

Dear Sir:

This communication is responsive to the Notification of Insufficient Fees mailed on 16 July 2007.

Applicant encloses herewith a copy of the Claims as filed in the Preliminary Amendment of the above referenced application. Applicant acknowledges that Claim 27 is a multiple dependent claim, attracting a multiple dependent claim fee of $360.00.

The Notification of Insufficient Fees states that the application contains a total of 18 claims over 20. Applicant respectfully contends that the application contains 15 claims over 20. The total of 15 claims over 20 includes a duplicate counting of Claim 27 since it depends from two claims. Fees for 14 claims over 20 were paid with the filing of the application. Therefore, Applicant owes the USPTO an excess claims fee of $50.00. Because Claim 27 is a multiple dependent claim and because it is counted twice in determining the number of claims, Applicant owes the USPTO a total of $410 in additional fees.

Fees in the amount of $410.00 are submitted with the filing of this Reply to Notification of Insufficient Fees as a charge to Deposit Account No. 50-3982 of Momkus McCluskey Monroe Marsh & Spyratos, LLC. The Director is hereby authorized to charge any deficiency in this fee, or to credit any overpayment, to Deposit Account No. 503982 of Momkus McCluskey Monroe Marsh & Spyratos, LLC.

Respectfully submitted,

/Jefferson Perkins/
